

Does size matter?

In the Brown Auditorium at LACMA, 5905 Wilshire Boulevard. Books (courtesy of D.A.P.) and refreshments after the event until 9pm. Free. No reservations required. Enquiries at (323) 857-6071.

Join Fulford and Cotton for LACMA's special Conversations With Artists event on Tuesday, September 25th, 2007 at 7pm.

In this light-hearted debate of a serious question "Does size matter in contemporary photography?" artist Jason Fulford and LACMA's new Curator of Photography, Charlotte Cotton, explore the issues of increasing size and seductive production values in the medium today. Delve into the history of photography as spectacle and entertainment with Fulford and Cotton in this lively, interactive conversation.

